HOME and TWO INCOMES?

$445,000

Significantly reduced in price, this Claudlands property is only a short walk from the CBD, hospitality precinct and popular retail centres. Current income is $625 per week - providing a very competitive gross return of 7.3%. The property sits on a high density zoned (RH) 877m2 section. A favoured location given the close proximity to popular schooling of all levels, this property is also a short stroll to Parana Park
